THE BLOODY MARY

In 1934, Fernand Petiot became a bartender at The St. Regis Hotel in New York, bringing with him the 'Bloody Mary' a vodka and tomato juice drink he had started making in Paris. It was in The St. Regis' King Cole Bar that Petiot perfected his original formula to create the drink that is so beloved today. It was named "The Red Snapper" and over the years, it has become one of the most well-known classic cocktails of the world.

Today, each St. Regis Hotel all over the world creates its own Bloody Mary to honor this timeless tradition of creating exquisite tastes by focusing on locality. We are proud to present you our signature Bloody Mary which was created by our mixologists and a selection of other Bloody Mary recipes from other St. Regis Hotels.
